

Traffic Engineer

- Are you passionate about transportation, parking and traffic engineering?
- Are you interested in genuine career development opportunities?
- Would you like to join a collaborative, highly skilled and diverse team?

the opportunity

Due to steady company growth and a strong pipeline of diverse projects, we are looking for a talented and passionate Traffic Engineer to join the team at ptc.

the role

Some of the key responsibilities of this role include:

- Undertake traffic engineering and Carparking design
- Basic traffic modelling and analysis
- Vehicle swept path analysis and interpretation
- Researching relevant traffic and transport policies
- Prepare traffic management plans
- Undertake vehicle swept path analysis and interpret
- Report preparation
- Compliance criteria checks

about you

- Collaborative team player
- Tertiary qualification in a relevant field, eg. Civil Engineering
- Broad understanding of Australian traffic engineering codes, guidelines, local government development and planning standards
- AutoCAD and SIDRA proficiency
- Excellent written and verbal communications
- Sound problem-solving for optimal project outcomes
- Passion for innovative thinking and efficient design

benefits:

- Work on a broad range of iconic and notable projects and clients
- Hybrid and flexible working options
- Collaborative, inclusive and diverse work culture

- Learning and talent development programs and opportunities
- Long-term career development pathways
- Employee assistance program
- North Sydney location, close to transport and new Metro line about ptc.

Established for over 40 years, we have a long and distinguished history of traffic, car park, transportation and civil engineering, and an equally long list of high-profile clients and iconic projects. At ptc. we believe in providing a high level of quality and care to our clients, projects and employees, which generates memorable journeys to enhance the built environment.

To apply for this opportunity please email your CV and cover letter to: info@ptcconsultants.co

Please note:

We can only accept candidates with a legal right to work in Australia;

Agency CV's will not be accepted or deemed as an introduction.